

Mag. Andreas AchRAINER

CEO of the Federal Agency for
Reception and Support Services
& Refugee coordinator

Education:

- ❖ Master's degree in Health Management at Danube University Krems
- ❖ 10/1994 – 06/1998
Law degree – University of Innsbruck
(thesis: The basic right to conscientious objection)
- ❖ 1994 University entrance examination for law – University of Innsbruck

Professional career:

- ❖ Since 07/2022: Head of the Department for Ukraine Refugee Coordination, Federal Chancellery Austria
- ❖ Since 12/2019: CEO of the Federal Agency for Reception and Support Services (BBU GmbH)
- ❖ 07/2017-31/01/2020
Project leader/managing director, AMVS - Austrian Medicines Verification System GmbH (fully owned subsidiary of AMVO – Austrian Medicines Verification Organisation)
- ❖ 09/2013-06/2017
Managing director and administrative director, Hartmann Spital GmbH / Franziskus Spital GmbH, Vienna
- ❖ 02/2012-09/2013
Managing director; Diakoniewerk Gallneukirchen, Vienna region
- ❖ 03/2010-01/2012
Principle lawyer/Senior head of department for Legal Representation of Interests, ÖAMTC
- ❖ 02/2002-01/2010
Country managing director, Austrian Red Cross National Association for Lower Austria & Burgenland
- ❖ 10/2005-03/2006
Managing director/head of authority, Federal Ministry of the Interior, Civilian service agency
- ❖ 01/2002-09/2005
Managing director/head of authority, Zivildienstverwaltungs Ges.m.b.H (fully owned subsidiary of ÖRK)
- ❖ 07/1999-01/2002
City of Salzburg, Higher Administrative Service (solicitor), VB I/a, municipal office